Brown named Dietary Partner of the Year To Be Honored at Banquet on May 30

SMITHVILLE – Holly Brown of Smithville was recently recognized as the Dietary Partner of the Year in the NHC Central Region. Mrs. Brown has worked full time at NHC Smithville for almost 2 years. She will be honored at a banquet at Embassy Suites in Murfreesboro, TN on May 30, 2013. Brown will be recognized as the best on the best among 13 other NHC healthcare centers and assisted living facilities in Middle Tennessee and Southern Kentucky.

“Holly is hard-working, dependable, honest, and highly skilled. She is a tremendous asset to NHC Smithville and we are fortunate to have her as a valued member of our team,” Amanda Savage, Dining Services Manager said. Clint Hall, Administrator, added, “Holly has a deep commitment to excellence, whether it is the quality food she prepares or helping her fellow partners. This is a great accomplishment for her and for NHC Smithville.”

NHC HealthCare, Smithville offers inpatient and outpatient rehabilitative care and accepts Medicare, Medicaid, private insurance, workers compensation, managed care, and private funds. The inpatient healthcare center offers skilled nursing and rehabilitation services to adults of all ages on a short-term and long-term basis. NHC Smithville’s outpatient clinic offers physical, occupational, and speech therapy services. For more information about NHC Smithville, visit www.nhcsmithville.com or call (615) 597-4284.
